Blood Unit Collects 165 Pints; Quota Topped

A total of 165 pints of blood was collected by the Red Cross unit here last Thursday, bringing the University's total to 378 pints. The quota this time was 125.

Five local doctors were assisted by six nurses and two custodians who are a part of the Bloodmobile unit. Dr. H. W. Mannhardt, Dr. J. R. Janney, Dr. D. L. Gamble, Dr. S. J. Smith and Dr. James Halphill took charge of the program at different times during the day.

A minimum of waiting time was required because of better scheduling and quicker processing. Approximately one hour was needed from registering at the beginning to the serving of refreshments at the completion of the visit.

Mrs. Ann Powell was in charge of the local Red Cross unit and Mrs. Helen Janzer headed the volunteer staff. Mrs. Charles Naugle was in charge of the canteen.

Mrs. Robert Warner, assistant administrator of the bloodmobile from the Cleveland Regional Center, accompanied the unit on its return trip.

Alpha Phi Omega members appreciated the way students met the schedule and thus avoided the congestion of last time.

Dr. J. Russell Coffey and Sam Cooper were the faculty members in charge.

IFC, Panhellenic Groups Plan Events For Greek Week

Greek Week plans are nearing completion upon the work of committees selected from Inter-Fraternity Council and Panhellenic Council.

Although not complete, the tentative schedule for the week's activities from April 11 to 17 follows:

On Sunday afternoon, fraternity men will unlimber their voices for the Inter-Fraternity Sing. There will be no required song this year, but just the fraternity song, and one number which is the fraternity choice.

Monday will bring the Inter-Fraternity Banquet for which the speaker will be Milton Olander, a member of the Wage Stabilization Board who is flying here from Washington.

The annual May Sing will be featured on Tuesday when the sororities assemble on the stage of the Main Aud. to chorus for campus competition.

The fraternity exchange dinners on Wednesday will give Greek students a chance to see "how the other half lives" at home.

Hats and heels will probably be noticed on Thursday when the Sorority Banquet will be held in the Commons.

Tentative for Friday is in the informal picnic sponsored by both of the organizations. If the dance planned for Saturday is changed to Friday, some change will be made in regard to the picnic.

Plan To Double Capacity Of Kohl Hall With Addition

Ohio's state architect has been commissioned by Pres. Ralph W. McDonald, under authority of the University's Board of Trustees, to develop plans for an addition to Kohl Hall.

The addition, estimated by planners to cost approximately $400,000, will double the housing capacity of the dorm. President McDonald stated that the University hopes to eventually convert Kohl back to a men's dorm, the purpose for which it was originally conceived and built.

Dr. McDonald asserted that it now is a settled policy of the Board of Trustees to make every effort to provide more and better housing on campus for students. Following up this policy, University Architect John K. Raney is working on the problem of improving the sleeping and study space in the dorms which make up Fraternity Row. The work on the fraternity houses will probably be done this summer.

Kohl's addition will include a center section facing Route 6, which will become the main entrance upon completion, and an L-shaped wing similar to the existing structure. The new L-shaped addition will extend east, then north, and when completed will make Kohl a U-shaped building.

The outside of the addition will look like the present building, but inside all modern facilities and improvements will be included.

Priorities for the materials for the construction have not been assured, but President McDonald feels that the University is in a good position to obtain them.

Seniors Apply Now

The last date for application for graduation is Wednesday, March 19, in Registrar's office.

Faculty Reduction Of 27 Caused By Enrollment Drop

BY DON TINDALL

Plans have been completed by the deans and department chairmen and have been approved by Pres. Ralph McDonald for the 52-53 faculty of Bowling Green State University. A total of approximately 210 full-time faculty members will be employed as compared with 240 during 1951-52.

A drop of more than 1,000 in the University enrollment since the fall of 1950 has made the adjustment in faculty desirable, University officials report.

Present figures show, however, that among the state universities of Ohio, Bowling Green's faculty will still be the largest in proportion to the size of the student body.

When the trend in enrollment became evident enough to predict reasonably the size of Bowling Green's student body next year, deans of the three colleges and department chairmen made a detailed study of faculty needs for next year. Upon completion of the study, recommendations for faculty employment were made, based upon the number of professors and instructors needed to adequately continue the present educational program.

Contracts are to be offered to the 210 recommended by the deans and department chairmen. A total of 27 have been advised by the University officials that their teaching services will not be needed next year, in order to give them an opportunity to seek positions elsewhere.

All faculty on tenure have been re-employed, and several of the faculty who this year had temporary one-year contracts were re-employed. The 27 faculty who will not be returning next year were all on temporary one-year contracts and had never been assured that they would be needed further by the University.

The large faculty in proportion to student body is being retained by the University in an effort to keep classes small, and thereby more effective, particularly in freshman English, speech, and math courses. The educational program will not be adversely affected by the reduction in faculty, and officials expressed hope that it may even improve as a result of the careful study of the program by the deans and department heads.

Spangler, Music Prof, Presents Piano Recital

Dr. Harry Spangler, associate professor of music, will present a piano recital in the PA Aud. at 8:15 p. m. Friday.

The program consists of three parts, one of which will be Schumann's Carnival.

Other numbers of the program include Sonatas in G and A by Scarlatti, Berceuse by Chopin, and Gondoliera by Liszt.

Art Professor To Talk

Charles J. Lakofsky, assistant professor of art, will give demonstrations and speak on ceramics at the Canadian Royal Society of Ceramists Workshop in Toronto, Canada, Thursday and Friday.

Student Affairs Council Okays Priority System For Scheduling

By CAROL SUTLIFF

Possible ways of cutting down or rescheduling social activities were discussed at a special meeting of Inter-Fraternity Council Wednesday night.

Consensus of the council was that the affairs in which Greek organizations participate should be rescheduled more evenly over the entire school year, IFC president Elliott Short said.

He reported that none of the fraternities were in favor of cutting out any activities. They seemed to favor each group's sponsoring a campus event if it wished to do so.

A priority system for scheduling University activities, suggested by John W. Bunn, director of admissions, has been approved by the Council on Student Affairs and Pres. Ralph W. McDonald.

The first priority in scheduling activities will be granted to campus functions involving the interests of the total student body.

This group includes all-campus dances and movies, all-campus events sponsored by social or religious groups, the Artist Series programs, University Theater productions, music department programs and intercollegiate contests.

Group priority assignments will go to large group interests such as class and faculty functions, departmental organizations, and student organizations such as IFC, Panhellenic Council and AWS.

Third priority in scheduling will be granted to the restricted groups including fraternities and sororities, honoraries and religious organizations.

Applications for the use of University facilities for social events next year will be made in the office of the Director of Admissions as follows: Group 1, March 31 through April 10; Group 2, April 21 through April 25; and Group 3, May 5, through May 9.

All events in group 1 will be scheduled before any in group 2 or 3. Once dates have been arranged for events in group 1, these will not be changed. Group 2 will be scheduled and finally group 3.

A committee from IFC and Panhellenic Council is considering various means of limiting the social activities during the year.

This committee is working with the deans and will present the final plan to IFC and Panhellenic Council for approval, and then to the Council on Student Affairs as the suggestion from the Greek organizations.

Execution, Poise Top Program Of Philharmonic Piano Concert

By LUGENE LUSK

Practically flawless execution, and abundant poise on the part of the Philharmonic Piano Quartet helped to overcome the flaws of a much-overworked program Sunday evening at the Men's Gymnasium.

Although a popular and appealing program, it wasn't too well planned for the college level.

The Quartet's performance as a whole was technically excellent but it lacked emotion and feeling, the true tests of greatness in a musician. Max Walmer was the exception to this. His artistry held the rest of the group together.

Divided in four parts, some of the more outstanding selections on the program included: Brahms' "Variation on a Theme of Haydn, Op. 56," Chopin's "Etude in G-sharp minor," and "Orgia," by Joaquin Turina, a Spanish number which called for precise timing, and which the Philharmonic Piano Quartet more than competently gave its audience.

The last two selections of the evening's entertainment—Procession from Peter and the Wolf by Prokofiev, Excerpts from Tchaikovsky's Nutcracker Suite, and Gershwin's Rhapsody in Blue were well known and popular works. But this very fact prevented them from causing anything but usual comment.

Ada Kopetz, John Scales, Bertha Melnik, and Max Walmer graciously consented to three encores for their listeners. Again the selections were well known, popular numbers.

The program notes were informative and well prepared.

Senior Announcements On Sale This Week

Senior class announcements for May graduates will be sold in the Well from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m. today through Friday. All seniors wishing to purchase announcements must order during these days.

Tryouts Held For Last Play

All students are eligible to try out for "The Skin of our Teeth," last major production of the University Theatre for this year, according to Dr. Elden T. Smith, director.

Tryouts will be held today and tomorrow, March 18 and 19 in Gate Theater from 7 to 9 p. m. Students who find it impossible to recite at those times may schedule private tryouts with Dr. Smith for tomorrow morning.

A large cast will be selected for the show. There are five major speaking parts for men and an equal number for women, as well as 15 non-speaking parts. The local showing will be May 7 through 9 in the Main Aud.

Campus Clean-Up Planned By Senate

An all-campus clean up day will be scheduled for this spring, according to Peg Chandler, chairman of the newly formed senate beautification committee.

An inventory of sore spots on campus will be taken by the committee which is working with Dean Ralph G. Harshman and Alpha Phi Omega. The campus will then be divided into sections and those units which volunteer to help clean up will each be assigned to a section. The clean up day will be held on a Saturday sometime this spring.

The University will supply all needed equipment and seed to beautify the campus. All equipment will be supplied by Carl Stanley of the maintenance department.

Student Directors Present One-Acts

Three one-act plays will be presented at Gate Theater the evening of April 3.

John Maragakas will direct "Riders to the Sea." Tina Lazoff and Carolyn O'Connor have the major roles.

"Three Pills in a Bottle," a fantasy, is under the direction of Mary Lou Barnum. Lois Chestnut and Sheila Taylor are Widow Simms and Tony, respectively.

The third play "Today is Tomorrow," is directed by Howard Ehrenman. The cast for this is to be announced.

Constructive Pledge Work

FRATERNALLY YOURS

By Shirley Good and Pat Osborn

Pi Kappa Alpha received a personal letter from the private secretary to the Queen of England thanking them for their sympathy card. The letter, from Buckingham palace, bore the official crest.

In recognition of their founders day, members of Phi Kappa Tau wore suits with red carnations in their button-holes Monday. Also in honor of the group's founding, Phi Tau held its second annual Rathskeller dance Friday in the Rec Hall.

Delta Zeta pledges had a ghost party for Sigma Nu pledges Friday.

Alpha Delta Pi had a hobo party with the Zeta Beta Taus. Friday night, the ADPI's celebrated St. Patrick's Day at an exchange party with the Pi Kappa Alphas.

We hear that the Delta Tau Delta pledges have signed a temporary truce with the actives. Wonder how long this cease-fire will last?

Chi Omega pledges had a party with Theta Chi pledges Friday. Saturday morning, the pledges of both groups had a work session at the sorority house.

Alpha Sigma Phi pledges gave a gangster party for Alpha Gamma Delta pledges Friday.

Sigma Chi held its third annual off-probation party Saturday night. Couples came dressed as gangsters and gun molls.

Exchange dinners: Chi O and Delta Upsilon; Chi O and Sigma Chi; Alpha Gamma Delta and Kappa Sigma; Alpha Delta Pi and Phi Kappa Psi; Alpha Chi Omega and Sigma Nu; Alpha Phi and Sigma Phi Epsilon.

The Delta Gammas held their annual founders day banquet at the Commons Saturday. Mrs. Audrey Wilder, former Bowling Green dean of women, was the guest speaker.

Theta Chi had a pledge party with Alpha Delta Pi. The group also had an Indian party with Phi Mu.

Pledge class officers: Alpha Delta Pi: Pat Simms, president; Jeanne Shuster, secretary; Pat Smith, treasurer; Helen Capko, social chairman; Susie Schumaker, song leader; Theta Chi: Fred Nelson, president; Don O'Connor, secretary-treasurer; Gene Winters, social chairman; Delta Gamma: Pat Vietmeier, president; Cynthia Chappell, vice-president; Ginny Anderson, recording secretary; Louise Folland, treasurer; Kay Carter, social chairman; Carol Payne, song mistress; Alpha Tau Omega: Bob Minton, president; Paul Doerr, vice-president, and social chairman; Pat Scheid, secretary-treasurer; Alpha Xi Delta: Carol Fox, president; Nancy Williams, vice-president; Carol Doren, secretary; Marietta Dayton, treasurer; Chi Omega: Barb Jisa, president; Sue Digby, secretary; Judy Stead, treasurer; Betty Bell, house chairman; Mary Pilliod, social chairman; and Sue Ward, song leader.

Alpha Chi Omega: Pat DeVoe, president; Shirley Taylor, first vice-president; Judy Petrick, second vice-president; Marilyn Scheid, corresponding secretary; Carol Lentz, recording secretary; Wilma Birrell, treasurer; Sarah Onsel, warden.

A hint of the subversive element on Bowling Green's campus became evident Friday night when the Alpha Tau Omega and Alpha Xi Delta comrades used a communist theme for their exchange party.

Campus Clean-Up Drive Advocated In Student Poll

All of us have the habit of occasionally dropping a piece of paper on the campus. Think what the University would look like if everybody were careless at the same time. To prevent this glorified junk yard appearance, several students have offered suggestions for keeping the University grounds clean.

Philip Siegel, sophomore, suggests "Placing signs in obvious places in buildings to put waste paper in wastepaper baskets. This would serve as a constant reminder."

Besides placing waste cans in obvious places, Ida Hussey, junior said "Maybe the Kampus Kops would like to take over the task of emptying the cans."

Nancy Joehlin, junior, claims that "Rules with fines don't seem to work on campus due to the old feeling 'rules are made to be broken.' Perhaps if each group were given the responsibility of keeping a certain area clean with some sort of recognition for the most improvement—There we go again! More competition."

Marilyn Fee, junior, said that "Perhaps the most effective means of keeping the campus clean is by imposing fines for abuse of the property. To get it cleaned initially, disposal cans could be placed in convenient positions and those inhabiting sorority and fraternity rows could aid in such a drive, as their immediate environment forms much of University grounds visible to the public."

Dick Radvon, junior, stated "There should be a clean-up campaign on the part of one of the student service organizations . . . If no solution can be found, we still have sorority and fraternity pledge classes who could perform a constructive function in cleaning the campus."

Don Hilliker, junior, stated "This is a constant problem whether it be on campus or in sorority, fraternity, or other student dorms. First, the student body would have to be mindful of the problem. There would have to be a desire to improve the appearance of the campus. Perhaps more strategically placed receptacles would alleviate the problem. Maybe an hour pledge project a week would make those and others more conscious of a clean campus."

Betty Brotherston, senior, thinks "The best way to keep our campus clean would be to fine students who are seen throwing trash around."

Young Republicans Elect New Officers

Officers for the new Young Republicans Club of Bowling Green were elected at the first meeting of the group last night in the Ad Bldg.

Jack Taylor is president; Charles Bonser, vice-president; Joyce Schmidt, secretary, and Bill Bittner, treasurer.

Members of the executive committee are Harold Dick, Homer Braggins, Darl Ault, Phil White, and Carol Charles.

Armitage, Workman Named Winning Pair At Moonlight Dance

Nev Armitage, Delta Tau Delta, and Pat Workman, Gamma Phi Beta, were chosen moonlight couple at the Sigma Nu Moonlight Dance Saturday night in the Women's Gym.

The couple was chosen from candidates representing each sorority and fraternity. A tea for the candidates was given at the fraternity house.

Couples attending the dance entered the gym through an arch covered with red and white roses. A black, gold, and white crepe paper false ceiling was decorated with silver glitter stars. Park benches and lamp posts were scattered about the gym.

This was the sixth annual dance given by the Sigma Nus.

Shaw Voted Prexy Of Phi Sigma Mu

Officers were elected at the regular meeting of Phi Sigma Mu, Tuesday, March 11. Elected to serve as officers next year are: Evalene Shaw, president; Pauline Robinson, vice-president; Arleen Tonn, corresponding and recording secretary; Howard Bond, treasurer; and Margaret Wepler, historian.

Plans also were discussed for the annual music department banquet April 8 at 6:30 p. m. Music majors and minors are invited to attend. Tickets may be purchased from any member of Phi Sigma Mu for $1.60.

Aviation Cadet Program Offers Special Opportunities for Collegians Now Preparing for Military Service

Here is a real man-size opportunity! You can choose—immediately—between being a Pilot or Aircraft Observer in America's swiftly-expanding Air Force. The Air Force encourages candidates to stay in school and graduate. However, seniors and students with two years or more of college who anticipate early entrance into military service can insure their future and serve their country best by applying for Aviation Cadet Training today. You receive the finest training and experience when you fly with the U. S. Air Force—experience that pays off in later years.

WHO MAY APPLY

AGE—Between 19 and 26½ years.
EDUCATION—At least two years of college.
MARITAL STATUS—Single.
PHYSICAL CONDITION—Good, especially eyes, ears, heart, and teeth.

HOW TO QUALIFY

1. Take transcript of college credits and copy of birth certificate to your nearest Air Force Base or Recruiting Station.

2. Appear for physical examination at your nearest Air Base at Government expense.

3. Accomplish Flying Aptitude Tests and enlist for two years only!

4. The Selective Service Act awards you a four-month deferment while awaiting class assignment.

5. Immediate assignment to Aviation Cadet Training Classes starting May 27, July 19, August 19 and October 2, 1952.

6. Attend Aviation Cadet Training School for one year—either as Pilot or Aircraft Observer. Get $106 monthly plus food, housing, uniforms, and other benefits.

7. Graduate and win your wings! Commissioned as a second lieutenant, you begin earning $5,000 a year. In addition, you receive $250 uniform allowance and a 30-day leave with pay.
